Dear Sir,
I am writing to you in regard to the 11th July. I think you will be interested to know that I have received your letter of the 11th and I am very grateful if you would re-examine my account.

I would like to take this opportunity to ask if you could send me your latest catalogue and price list. I believe the price list of the catalogue I held at the moment are probably both considerably out of date and I will soon be placing another order with you.

I thought that the list of household goods contained in your latest catalogue was somewhat limited and I regret that you carry very few of the electric goods on the market.

Also, I thought that much of the catalogue list of the shops are now full of broken and the dishes which look ideal on the I trust that when I receive your new your stock has been considerably increased point in continuing with the account by post will be obliterated by the new one.

If the new catalogue is not yet within the next few weeks, I will the new edition is in print. If however, it would be helpful if separately and I can then see what I trust this can all be sorted out look forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs. J. Smith
